Introduction

At Churchstanton, we are committed to providing an environment that nurtures and transforms the lives of children and young people attending [Any School] and take seriously our responsibilities to safeguard and promote their welfare. In addition, we undertake our responsibilities to work in partnership with agencies as part of the wider, multi-agency, safeguarding system, always acting in the best interest of the child or young person where concerns are identified, in accordance with the Churchstanton Safeguarding (Child Protection) Policy and Procedures, statutory guidance and Somerset Safeguarding Partnership policies and procedures.

Personal sensitive information is processed in accordance with the Data Protection Act 2018 and Part 3, the General Data Protection Regulations (GDPR). Consent to share information will be sought unless we are required to share information where there are child protection concerns (and consent has been withheld) or we are requested to share information with other statutory agencies such as the police or children's social care in pursuit of their enquiries in order protect and safeguard children and young people.

Definition of safeguarding

“Safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children is defined in statutory guidance as: protecting children from maltreatment; preventing impairment of children’s mental and physical health or development; ensuring that children grow up in circumstances consistent with the provision of safe and effective care; taking action to enable all children to have the best outcomes.” (p. 4 KCSIE 2020)

Safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children is everyone’s responsibility.

To fulfil this responsibility effectively we ensure our approach is child-centered and always places the safety, welfare and needs of the child or young person first.

Most children grow up in loving families and supportive communities and become independent, resilient adults. Wherever possible we want this for all children and young people in Somerset, so that they and their families can support themselves by engaging with and contributing to their local communities.

In order to achieve this children, young people and their families should receive the right intervention as early as possible to tackle problems and prevent issues escalating. All practitioners will adopt an Early Help/Think Family approach meaning they look at the whole family situation and what needs to happen to improve that situation whether that means working with adults, children or the whole family

Our commitment

To safeguard and promote the welfare of children and young people through:

- The provision of a safe environment in which children and young people can learn
- The provision of high-quality residential provision which nurtures and develops our children and young people to achieve and thrive
- Identifying concerns early and provide appropriate help and support for children and young people and their parents/carers to prevent concerns escalating to a point whereby intervention would be required under the Children Act 1989 and in accordance with the Somerset Safeguarding Children Partnership Effective Support for Children and Families,

Glossary

- References to “staff” related to any staff-member, paid or unpaid, who contribute to the care, transportation or education of our children and young people.
- For the purposes of brevity, Somerset Safeguarding Children Partnership is referred to as SSCP.

- Other specific guidance and advice issued by the Department for Education (DfE) in relation to the wider safeguarding agency, e.g. COVID-19 , behaviour, health and safety, bullying, e-safety and medical needs

The role of the Designated Safeguarding Lead (DSL)

Keeping Children Safe in Education (September 2020) is a statutory guidance document that requires every school and college to have a Designated Safeguarding Lead (DSL) who has the status and authority within the senior leadership team to carry out the duties of the post including committing resources and, where appropriate, supporting and directing staff.

The provided advice and support to other staff on child welfare and child protection matters, take part in strategy discussions, inter-agency meeting (or support other staff to do so) and to contribute to the assessment of children and young people.

The DSL should be given time and the resources they need to carry out the role effectively

The role of the Deputy Designated Safeguarding Lead (DDSL)

The DDSL supports the DSL in discharging their responsibilities and whilst they may deputise for the DSL the lead responsibility for child protection remains with the DSL. Some schools and colleges have more than one DDSL so you will need to reflect this here.

Details of Churchstanton key safeguarding personnel can be found at Appendix D

Both the DSL and DDSL must complete single agency and multi-agency training to undertake the role which is provided by the Local Authority Education Safeguarding Service and Somerset Safeguarding Partnership. In addition, they will access DSL briefings, attend annual refresher training and remain up to date in relation to early help, safeguarding and child protection.

What all staff should know

All schools and colleges are required to issue, in full, Part One and Annex A of Keeping Children Safe in Education (September 20 20) to their staff and ensure that they have read and understood its contents. At Churchstanton we are adopting this guidance and its contents across the whole organisation and whilst the language refers to “school” or “headteacher” it applies to both care and education provision provided at Churchstanton. School should be interpreted to be “Churchstanton” and “headteacher” should be interpreted as “principal”

Staff Induction

As part of the induction process for new employees they will attend an induction briefing or if they commence part way through the year receive a one to one induction meeting with either the DSL DDSL that signposts staff to relevant safeguarding documentation including this policy and procedure, guidance for safer working practice, what to do if you’re worried a child may be abused and whistleblowing advice see Appendix A: Staff Induction Record

Action to be taken if there are concerns in relation to safeguarding practices Churchstanton and residential provision

All staff, volunteers and agency staff should feel able to raise concerns about poor or unsafe practice and any potential failures in the safeguarding regime and know that such concerns will be taken seriously by the senior leadership team and designated safeguarding leads. Should staff feel unable to raise concerns within the organisation advice and guidance has been produced to ensure that they are aware of how to raise such concerns externally see Appendix B: NSPCC Whistleblowing advice and information. Which is also available on the safeguarding notice board in the staff room. In addition, the Churchstanton whistleblowing policy is available via the website/internal intranet www.churchstanton.school

The Churchstanton concerns flowchart provides additional information about how to make a referral to Children's Social Care, the LADO or to report concerns to the NSPCC advice line in instances where they have concerns about the organisation’s response to child protection, the conduct of staff or they do not feel that appropriate action has been taken in relation to concerns they have raised. This is available in Appendix C of this document.

Abuse and neglect (definitions)

All staff should be aware that abuse, neglect and safeguarding issues are rarely standalone events that can be covered by one definition or label. In most cases, multiple issues will overlap with one another.

Abuse is the maltreatment of a child or young person; they may be abused or neglected through harm being inflicted or by parents or carers failing to prevent harm.

Children and young people may be abused in a family or in an institutional or community setting by those known to them. They may also experience abuse online by people they may or may not know. Perpetrators of abuse may be adults or children and may operate alone or in groups.

The following are the statutory definitions of abuse and neglect as set out in Working Together to Safeguard Children (2018). The ultimate responsibility to assess and determine the type of abuse lies with the Police and Children's Social Care.

Our responsibilities are:

- to understand what each category of abuse is
- to understand how this abuse can impact on the welfare and development of our children
- to take appropriate action when we have concerns that a child or young person might be at risk of or already experiencing abuse or neglect

Physical abuse

A form of abuse which may involve hitting, shaking, throwing, poisoning, burning or scalding, drowning, suffocating or otherwise causing physical harm to a child. Physical harm may also be caused when a parent or carer fabricates the symptoms of, or deliberately induces, illness in a child.

Statutory guidance Safeguarding Children in whom Illness is Fabricated or Induced (2008) sets out a national framework within which agencies and professionals at local level – individually and jointly – draw up and agree upon their own more detailed ways of working together where illness may be being fabricated or induced in a child by a carer who has parenting responsibilities for them.

Neglect

The persistent failure to meet a child's basic physical and/or psychological needs, likely to result in the serious impairment of the child's health or development. Neglect may occur during pregnancy as a result of maternal substance abuse.

Once a child is born, neglect may involve a parent or carer failing to: provide adequate food, clothing and shelter (including exclusion from home or abandonment); protect a child from physical and emotional harm or danger; ensure adequate supervision (including the use of inadequate care-givers); ensure access to appropriate medical care or treatment. It may also include neglect of, or unresponsiveness to, a child's basic emotional needs.

Emotional abuse

The persistent emotional maltreatment of a child such as to cause severe and adverse effects on the child's emotional development. It may involve conveying to a child that they are worthless or unloved, inadequate, or valued only insofar as they meet the needs of another person.

It may include not giving the child opportunities to express their views, deliberately silencing them or 'making fun' of what they say or how they communicate. It may feature age or developmentally inappropriate expectations being imposed on children. These may include interactions that are beyond a child's developmental capability as well as overprotection and limitation of exploration and learning, or preventing the child participating in normal social interaction. It may involve seeing or hearing the ill-treatment of another. It may involve serious bullying (including cyberbullying), causing children frequently to feel frightened or in danger, or the exploitation or corruption of children. Some level of emotional abuse is involved in all types of maltreatment of a child, although it may occur alone.

Sexual abuse

Involves forcing or enticing a child or young person to take part in sexual activities, not necessarily involving a high level of violence, whether or not the child is aware of what is happening.

The activities may involve physical contact, including assault by penetration (for example rape or oral sex) or non-penetrative acts such as masturbation, kissing, rubbing and touching outside of clothing. They may also include non-contact activities, such as involving children in looking at, or in the production of, sexual images, watching sexual activities, encouraging children to behave in sexually inappropriate ways, or grooming a child in preparation for.

Sexual abuse can take place online and technology can be used to facilitate offline abuse. Sexual abuse is not solely perpetrated by adult males. Women can also commit acts of sexual abuse, as can other children.

Safeguarding in specific circumstances

In addition to the above there are other areas of safeguarding that the organisation has to have due regard to.

Annex A of Keeping Children Safe in Education (September 2020) highlights specific forms of abuse and safeguarding issues which staff who work with children and young people should read the following is a synopsis of the areas addressed but are not a fully replica of the guidance.

Children and the court system may be required to give evidence in the criminal courts, either for crimes committed against them or for crimes they have witnessed.

There are a range of guides to support child witnesses. In the civil courts children and young people may be involved in child arrangement hearing and the Ministry of Justice has launched an online child arrangement information tool detaining the dispute resolution service.

Children Missing Education (CME)

All staff should be alert to children going missing as this can be a vital warning sign of a range of safeguarding risks, including abuse and neglect, sexual abuse or exploitation (Child Sexual Exploitation and Criminal), travel to conflict zones, Female Genital Mutilation (FGM), forced marriage. Early intervention is necessary to protect and safeguard a child or young person

Children with family members in prison

These children are more likely to have poor outcomes, including poverty, stigma, isolation and poor mental health. More information to support schools and colleges can be found on the Nicco website

Child Sexual Exploitation (CSE)

CSE is child sexual abuse, whereby an individual or group takes advantage of an imbalance of power to coerce, manipulate or deceive a child or young person under 18 to engage in sexual activity (a) in exchange for something the victim needs or wants and/or (b) for the financial advantage or increased status of the perpetrator or facilitator

Child Criminal Exploitation (CCE)

CCE is where an individual or group takes advantage of an imbalance of power to coerce, control, manipulate or deceive a child into any criminal activity:

- in exchange for something the victim needs or wants
- for the financial or other advantage of the perpetrator or facilitator
- through violence or the threat of violence

County lines

County lines is a term used to describe gangs and organised criminal networks involved in exporting illegal drugs (primarily crack cocaine and heroin) into one or more importing areas [within the UK], using dedicated mobile phone lines or other form of “deal line”.

Exploitation is an integral part of the county lines offending model with children and vulnerable adults exploited to move [and store] drugs and money. Offenders will often use coercion, intimidation, violence (including sexual violence) and weapons to ensure compliance of victims.

Children can be targeted and recruited into county lines in a number of locations including schools, further and higher educational institutions, pupil referral units, special educational needs schools, children's homes and care homes. Children are often recruited to move drugs and money between locations and are known to be exposed to techniques such as 'plugging', where drugs are concealed internally to avoid detection. Children can easily become trapped by this type of exploitation as county lines gangs create drug debts and can threaten serious violence and kidnap towards victims (and their families) if they attempt to leave the county lines network.

One of the ways of identifying potential involvement in county lines are missing episodes (both from home and school), when the victim may have been trafficked for the purpose of transporting drugs and a referral to the National Referral Mechanism¹⁰³ should be considered. If a child is suspected to be at risk of or involved in county lines, a safeguarding referral should be considered alongside consideration of availability of local services/third sector providers who offer support to victims of county lines exploitation.

Further information on the signs of a child's involvement in county lines is available in guidance published by the Home Office.

Child and Adolescent Mental Health

Good mental health and resilience are fundamental to our physical health, our relationships, our education and to achieving our potential. Please refer to the DfE advice, Mental Health and Behaviour in Schools (2018).

This is non-statutory advice which clarifies the responsibility of the school, outlines what they can do and how to support a child or young person whose behaviour - whether it is disruptive, withdrawn, anxious, depressed or otherwise - may be related to an unmet mental health need. While it considers the school environment it is also relevant for work within our residential provision.

Bullying

Churchstanton has a separate Anti-Bullying Policy, which is accessible on the school website.

Domestic, gender-based and teenage relationship abuse and violence against women

These categories of abuse are defined as any incident or pattern of incidents of controlling, coercive, threatening behaviour, violence or abuse between those aged 16 or over who are or have been intimate partners irrespective of gender or sexuality.

Exposure to domestic abuse or violence can have a serious, long lasting emotional and psychological impact on the development of children and young people.

Further advice and guidance accessed through:

- NSPCC
- Refuge
- Safelives
- Spotlight on Young People
- The Domestic Abuse National Helpline

Homelessness

Homelessness or the being at risk of being made homeless is a significant risk for children or young people. The DSL should refer the matter to Children's Services as soon as possible.

The Homelessness Reduction Act 2017 places a new legal duty on English councils to provide meaningful help, including an assessment of need and circumstances.

The DfE and the Ministry of Housing, Communities and local government have published joint statutory guidance on the provision of accommodation for 16 and 17-year-olds who may be homeless or require accommodation.

Online Safety

Annex C of Keeping Children Safe in Education (September 2020) addresses the use of technology which can be a significant component of many safeguarding issues including CSE, CCE, radicalisation, sexual predation etc., whereby technology provides the platform that facilitates harm.

Schools and colleges must adopt a range of effective safeguarding approaches that both safeguards and empowers children and young people to access support and remain safe online by reducing the risk of harm through the use of filters, monitoring and appropriate use policies for those accessing our IT system, whilst at the same time providing a safe environment in which children and young people can learn to keep themselves safe online.

Peer on Peer Abuse

Peer-on-peer abuse can take many forms, including bullying (including cyber bullying); sexual violence; harassment; physical abuse and violence (e.g. hitting, kicking, shaking, biting); sexting and initiating/hazing-type* violence or rituals.

* Hazing or initiation ceremonies refers to the practice of rituals, challenges and other activities involving harassment. Hazing is seen in many different types of social groups, including gangs, sports teams and school groups.

Sexual violence and sexual harassment between children in schools and colleges can occur between two children of any age irrespective of their gender or sexual identity. It can occur through a group of children or young people sexually assaulting or harassing an individual or group of children.

Up-skirting

Up-skirting involves taking a picture under a person's clothing without them knowing, with the intention of viewing their genitals or buttocks to obtain sexual gratification or cause the victim humiliation, distress or alarm. This is now a criminal offence and incidents must be reported to the Police in the first instance.

Preventing extremism

Children and young people can be vulnerable to extremist ideology and radicalisation and forms part of schools and colleges safeguarding responsibilities, as set out in the Prevent Duty. Extremism is the vocal or active opposition to our fundamental values and radicalisation refers to the process by which a person comes to support terrorism and extremist ideologies associated with terrorist groups. Further information can be accessed below in relation to:

- Extremism
- Radicalisation
- Keeping Children Safe in Education (2020) – page 110

Private Fostering

Private fostering is when a child under the age of 16 (under 18 if they have a disability) is cared for by someone who is not their parent or a 'close relative'. This is a private arrangement made between a parent and carer, for 28 or more consecutive days.

Close relatives are defined as step-parents, grandparents, brothers, sisters, uncles or aunts (whether of full blood, half blood or marriage/affinity).

A private foster carer may be a friend of the family, the parent of a friend of the child, or someone previously unknown to the child's family who is willing to privately foster a child. Church Stanton has a responsibility to refer to Children's Social Care of any private fostering arrangement we become aware of, in order for Children's Social Care to undertake an assessment to ensure the needs and welfare of the child or young person is being met and that adults caring for them have access to advice and support.

Special Education Needs and disabilities

There is a concern sometimes that, for children with SEN and disabilities, that their SEN or disability needs are seen first, and the potential for abuse second. If children are behaving in particular ways or they're looking distressed or their behaviour or presentation is different from in the past, our staff should think about that being a sign of the potential for abuse, and not simply see it as part of their disability or their special educational needs.

The Governing Body (including Trusts or Directors)

Governing bodies and proprietors will ensure that they comply with their duties under legislation. They will also have regard to this guidance to ensure that the policies, procedures and training in the provision are effective and comply with the law at all times.

The responsibilities placed on governing bodies and proprietors include:

- Contributing to ensure the provision is carrying out inter-agency working, which includes providing a coordinated offer of early help when additional needs of children are identified.
- Ensuring that an effective child protection policy is in place, together with a staff behaviour code of conduct policy and behaviour policy.
- Ensuring staff are provided with Part One and Annex A of Keeping Children Safe in Education (2020) – and are aware of specific safeguarding issues.
- Ensuring that staff induction is in place with regards to child protection and safeguarding.
- Appointing an appropriate senior member of staff to act as the Designated Safeguarding Lead.
- Ensuring that all of the Designated Safeguarding Leads (including deputies) undergo formal Somerset child protection training every two years (in line with SSCP guidance) and receive regular (annual) safeguarding refreshers (for example via e-bulletins, meeting other DSLs, or taking time to read and digest safeguarding developments).
- Prioritising the welfare of children and young people and creating a culture where staff and volunteers are confident to challenge senior leaders over any safeguarding concerns.
- Ensuring that children are taught about safeguarding in an age appropriate way.
- Ensuring appropriate filters and appropriate monitoring systems are in place to safeguard children from potentially harmful and inappropriate online material
- Having a senior board level lead to take leadership responsibility for the organisation's safeguarding arrangements.
- Ensure scrutiny and effectiveness of the single central record and child protection recording is undertaken.
- Ensure safeguarding is regularly discussed and outcomes recorded at Governor meetings.
- Ensure the requirements of The Governor's Safeguarding Audit Section 175 are met and actions when needed completed in a timely way

Looked after children

The staff have the necessary skills and understanding to keep looked after children safe. Appropriate staff have information about a child's looked after legal status and care arrangements, including the level of authority delegated to the carer by the authority looking after the child. The designated teacher for looked after children and the DSL have details of the child's social worker and the name and contact details of the local authority's virtual head for children in care.

Honour-Based Abuse

Including: Female Genital Mutilation, Forced Marriage and Breast Ironing

Honour-based abuse relates to incidents or crimes which have been committed to protect or defend the honour of the family or community. All forms of honour based violence (HBV) is abuse, regardless of the motivation and should be handled and escalated as such.

There are specific mandatory reporting duties for teachers and support staff to report to the Police where they discover (either through disclosure or visual evidence) that FGM appears to have been carried out on a girl under 18.

Additional guidance and publications

- FGM: Mandatory reporting procedural information can be accessed here

Allegations of Abuse Made Against Teachers, Other Staff, Volunteers and Agency Staff or People in a Position of Trust

Working Together to safeguard Children (March 2018) states that organisations should have in place clear policies in line with those from the Somerset Safeguarding Partnership to manage allegations against people who work with children and young people. Such policies should make a clear distinction between an allegation, a concern about the quality of care or practice or a complaint. Full details are available here

In addition, Keeping Children Safe in Education (September 2020) Part Four, sets how allegations may indicate that a person would pose a risk of harm if they continue to work in regular or close contact with children in their present position, or in any capacity in a school or college under the age of 18 years. Part 4 of the Keeping Children Safe in Education (September 2020) which can be accessed here

An allegation may relate to a person who works with children who has:

- behaved in a way that has harmed a child, or may have harmed a child
- possibly committed a criminal offence against or related to a child or
- behaved towards a child or children in a way that indicates they may pose a risk of harm
- behaved or may have behaved in a way that indicates they may not be suitable to work with children

The Churchstanton Management of Allegations Policy and procedure is available on the school website.

Phone Somerset Direct on 0300 123 2224 for a referral to the LADO.

What staff should do if they have concerns about another staff member

If any member of staff, volunteer or agency staff have concerns relating to an individual's conduct or behaviour, whether they be a colleague, member of the management or senior leadership team, they should refer their concerns to the designated safeguarding lead or the Headteacher.

Where concerns or allegations relate to the Headteacher, these should be referred to the chair of governors. Where further action or discussion is needed the LADO must be contacted

Staff Code of Conduct

In addition to the Safeguarding and Child Protection policy, We have a staff Code of Conduct that outlines an acceptable level of staff behaviour. During their induction training, new staff will be given and have read:

- Staff Code of Conduct (including use of social media, and the Position of Trust Offence)
- The school's Safeguarding and Child Protection policy
- Keeping Children Safe in Education (2018) (Part One and Annex A)
- The school's Behaviour Policy
- Procedures for children missing education
- Prioritising the welfare of children and young people and creating a culture where staff and volunteers are confident to challenge senior leaders over any safeguarding concerns.
- Ensuring that children are taught about safeguarding in an age appropriate way.
- Ensuring appropriate filters and appropriate monitoring systems are in place to safeguard children from potentially harmful and inappropriate online material
- Having a senior board level lead to take leadership responsibility for the organisation's safeguarding arrangements.
- Ensure scrutiny and effectiveness of the single central record and child protection recording is undertaken.
- Ensure safeguarding is regularly discussed and outcomes recorded at Governor meetings.
- Ensure the requirements of The Safeguarding Audit Section 175 are met and actions when needed completed in a timely way

What is Safeguarding (Child Protection)

Safeguarding is an overarching term used to ensure that the welfare of children and young people is paramount, and they are protected from abuse and neglect. We all have a statutory duty to safeguard and promote the welfare of children. This means protecting children and young people from abuse and neglect; preventing impairment of health or development; ensuring they are growing up in circumstances consistent with the provision of safe and effective care and taking action to enable all children and young people to have the best life chances.

Every member of staff, irrespective of their role in the organisation, has a responsibility to keep children or young people safe and to take appropriate action whenever they hear, observe or are told information that could impact on their welfare and safety.

Child protection is the statutory threshold for intervention in family life whereby a child or young person is suffering or at risk of significant harm. As an organisation Churchstanton has a number of statutory responsibilities that must be fulfilled which are set out in legislation and statutory guidance.

You have been issued with Part 1 of Keeping Children Safe in Education (September 2020 and Annex A) and you will have been asked to read the document ahead of today's induction. Have you had an opportunity to do so? Do you have any questions?

What Safeguarding means for children or young people at [Any School]

At Churchstanton we expect our staff to exercise high standards of behaviour and provide high quality professional support to our children. It is therefore important that we all understand that the nature of our work and the responsibilities related to it, which places us in unique position of trust. During the course of your induction you will have the opportunity to access a range of training that will provide you with the knowledge and skills you need to do your job. In addition, you will be required to read a number of different policies and procedures that will provide you with contextual information and guidance.

All staff, irrespective of their role in the organisation, have a responsibility to ensure that illegal, unsafe, unprofessional or irresponsible behaviour exhibited by staff is challenged and reported. It is always difficult to raise concerns about a colleagues' behaviour, but you must discuss any concerns with the designated or deputy safeguarding lead.

If you do not feel you can raise concerns within the organisation then you can access the NSPCC Whistleblowing helpline on 0800 028 0285 between 8 a.m. and 8 p.m. or email help@nspcc.org.uk

You must familiarise yourself with the following policies which are available on the Safeguarding Notice Board (Staff Room) and on the School Website:

1. Guidance on safer working practice for those working with children and young people in education settings (April 2020) Churchstanton has adopted this as our staff code of conduct which is available in the staff room on the safeguarding notice board
2. What to do if you're worried a child is being abused (DfE March 2015) advice for practitioners
3. Churchstanton Safeguarding (Child Protection) Policy and Procedures can be accessed in the staff room and on the school website.
4. Churchstanton Behaviour policy and
5. Children Missing Education procedures

Voice and influence

When working with children and young people communication is crucial, especially in relation to safeguarding. Communication is a two-way process and doesn't just relate to a child's ability to communicate via speech therefore, we need to approach communication in its broadest terms, considering body language, gestures, behaviour and presentation. We must also support our children to make positive choices.

Action to be taken if you have a concern about the welfare of a pupil or the conduction/actions of a member of staff or visitor to Churchstanton

You should discuss your concerns, observations or any information that may impact on the welfare of a child with a designated or deputy safeguarding lead. The flowchart overleaf has been developed to offer you guidance on what you should do. It is not intended to cover all eventualities, but it aims to provide a framework for action.

What is important is that you take action and raise your concerns, the designated or deputy safeguarding lead may hold other relevant information, but your information may be new and important - the final part of the information jigsaw.

Early Years Provision.

Working Together 2018 states

- Early years providers have a duty under section 40 of the Childcare Act 2006 to comply with the Safeguarding and Welfare Requirements of the Early Years Foundation Stage.

Keeping Children Safe in Education 2018 states

- The Early Years Foundation Stage Framework (EYFS) is mandatory for all early years providers. It applies to all schools that provide early years provision including maintained nursery schools.

The Early Years Foundation Stage states

- Schools are not required to have separate policies to cover EYFS requirements provided the requirements are already met through an existing policy. Where providers other than childminders are required to have policies and procedures as specified below, these policies and procedures should be recorded in writing.
- Providers must be alert to any issues of concern in the child's life at home or elsewhere. Providers must have and implement a policy, and procedures, to safeguard children. These should be in line with the guidance and procedures of the relevant Local Safeguarding Children Board (LSCB). The safeguarding policy and procedures must include an explanation of the action to be taken when there are safeguarding concerns about a child and in the event of an allegation being made against a member of staff and cover the use of mobile phones and cameras in the setting.

Early Years Providers must be compliant with the Safeguarding and Welfare Requirements Below is the link to the EYFS

- As an appendix to this policy, we ensure that we are compliant with all the Safeguarding and Welfare Requirements of the Early Years Foundation Stage 2017 by adopting the following:
- We have a mobile phone and camera policy in place within the provision that details the procedure for use of these devices. This covers the use of Mobile Phones and Cameras in the setting and on visits and includes the settings procedures with regards to mobile phones and cameras for all staff, volunteers and visitors.

MISSING CHILD PROCEDURE

Churchstanton Primary School takes the safety of children very seriously and will take every precaution necessary to ensure that the children in their care do not leave a session unaccompanied. The chances of finding a missing child safe are greatest if the child's absence is soon discovered. In the unlikely event that a child is noted to be missing from school premises, or an external trip or visit the school will put into practice agreed procedures. These ensure the most effective resolution of this potentially distressing situation. Many of our school routines, procedures and security features are in place to contribute to the prevention of a child going missing and to ensuring the safety and security of all children at all times.

In the unlikely event of a going missing the following procedure should be followed.

- A member of staff noticing a child missing should search carefully all the areas used by that group since the child was last seen to eliminate misunderstanding.
- Staff should ring the office for a senior member of staff to organise a search of the rest of the building and outside area.
- If the child is not found, the Headteacher and the child's parents should be alerted.
- Information can be sought from other children in the group according to age.
- A member of staff may be detailed to search outside the building if there is any information to suggest the child's possible whereabouts or direction of travel.
- Headteacher/Manager, Parents and will liaise re calling Police.
- If the child is not found within 10 minutes the police will be called.

LOST ON AN EXTERNAL VISIT

If a child is lost on an external visit the member of staff noticing the child missing should alert other members of the party and carry out a numbers check.

- A member of staff or the whole group if appropriate should retrace their movements to the last place that the child was seen.
- Another member of staff should alert the management of the organisation being visited and the School to let them know the situation.
- Children on the visit should be asked for any relevant information if appropriate.
- If the child is not found straight away the School will alert the parents.
- If the child is not found within 10 minutes the police will be called.
