

Can I be a writer/reader/speaker?

- Can I describe a setting and build atmosphere within my writing?
- Can I imagine the scene after an air raid in the wartime?
- Can I write a letter home as an evacuee?
- Can I use parenthesis - brackets, commas or dashes - to add extra information into my writing?
- Can I understand relative clauses and relative pronouns?
- Can I recognise the works of Emma Carroll, including our class reader?

Can I be a mathematician?

- Can I understand the place value of numbers?
- Can I use addition, subtraction, multiplication and division?
- Can I understand fractions? (y6)
- Can I learn about the position and direction of shapes? (y6)
- Can I understand and create line graphs and tables? (y5)
- Can I measure and calculate perimeter and area? (y5)

Can I be a scientist?

- Can I classify different living things? (En)
- Can I explain the life cycle of plants?
- Can I explain the life cycle of mammals?
- Can I explain the life cycle of amphibians?
- Can I explain the life cycle of insects?
- Can I explore the changes in habitat leading to species becoming endangered?
- Can I set up simple, practical enquiries and comparative and fair tests?

Can I be a historian or geographer?

- Can I demonstrate knowledge of the basic facts and dates of WW2?
- Can I explore the experiences of evacuees/children?
- Can I write letters as an evacuee? (A)
- Can I explore Air raid experiences - film and audio?
- Can I make luggage tags and gas masks?
- Can I explore The Blitz - plus artwork? (A)

Can I use technology?

- Can I script, record and edit a mini wildlife documentary?
- Can I use computer software to produce a simple graph or chart to show data collected in Science?

Can I be a linguist? (D) (A)

- Can I give and understand classroom instructions?
- Can I give basic greetings using role play?
- Can I learn all about Christmas traditions in Germany? (D)

Can I be an artist? (A)

- Can I view and appreciate the work of wartime artists?
- Can I create a luggage tag and a gas mask?
- Can I learn more about the landscape and war artist Paul Nash, his techniques and the Surrealist movement he was a part of? (A)

Enterprise (Et) and values

- Can I take part in our Badger Class Cake Sale?
- Visit from well-known author Emma Carroll (When we were warriors) (A)
- Can I create and sell Christmas goods at our Christmas Fayre?

Can I be a philosopher?

- Can I take part in Daily Collective Worship including Open the Book assemblies?
- Can I exhibit the values of Forest School? (En)
- Can I participate in Circle Time?
- Can I focus on our School Values?

Can I be a musician? (A)

- Getting to know Mrs Berry
- Can I create wartime sound effects?
- Can I recognise notable wartime soundtracks?
- Can I prepare for Christmas and the carol concert?

Can I be an outdoor learner? (En)

- Can I take part in a Woodland Walk - using our local area?
- Can we harvest our own produce?
- Can we learn about cooking/rationing/Dig for victory and relate these to our area?

Can I be an athlete?

- Can I improve my ball skills - both individually and within team sports?
- Can I participate in a range of Outdoor Learning activities? (En)