

Being an Author/ Communicator Can I study and learn a text through talk for writing? Class texts-The Tiger who came to tea, Where the Wild Things are, The Three Little Pigs. Through inventing new stories children will learn and use exciting vocabulary and story language. Can I perform stories using role play and puppets? Can I learn facts about tigers by researching in encyclopaedias and the internet and then use this learning to publish a page for a class fact file?(ENVIRONMENT) Can I listen to an author and ask questions?(ENTERPRISE) How can I be an accurate editor? Can I listen to and read a range of texts to develop my skill and love of reading? Can I practise reading daily in order to become fluent?	Being a Geographer By going on a Wild Thing Hunt can I investigate and explore the local area? Can I map the journey, location of a Tiger/Wild thing/ Little Pig and find out about what he sees and where he lives? (ENVIRONMENT) Can I use small world play to support this and make 3D environments? Can I use new geographical vocab? Being an Historian Can I sequence my life and my family? By investigating different types of buildings I can begin to understand how people live and lived locally. Can I find out who Guy Fawkes was? What significant building did he try to destroy and why? Can I explain what a home is ?	Being a Scientist What types of materials are suitable to build homes from? Where do animals make their homes and why? How do they keep warm? Do all animals hibernate? Can I design and build a waterproof shelter? Ongoing seasonal weather changes. (ENVIRONMENT) Being an Environmentalist Through Forest School how can I use my environment for learning, celebrating and having fun? Observe seasonal changes in the forest - Autumn changes Team games. Learning skills- Knots, wrapping and frapping (weaving). Make Art from natural materials.
Being a Mathematician Can I count and use numbers accurately in a range of situations? Can I explain place value? Can I understand and use coins to shop? Can I use measurement to build and compare models? Can I present information in charts and tables? Can I learn the order of numbers by singing number rhymes and inventing my own? Can I use timetables to sequence my day, week, year? Can I order the main events in my life so far? By using + - x ÷ = can I solve number problems ?	Hedgehogs Autumn Term  “There’s no place like home!”	Being an Artist/Designer What colours and shades can I make by mixing the primary colours? Through sketching and painting the environment can I begin to develop a love of Art? Artist Study- Henri Rousseau Can I be involved in a community Art Project? Through meeting artists can I be inspired to make my own? Being a Designer (ENTERPRISE) Can I design and make models of shelters using different materials? Can I make puppets and masks to use in Drama? Can I use tools to make models? Can I make a decoration for sale at the Xmas fayre?
Being a member of Our Community (R.E) Through daily Collective Worship and class assemblies find out how and why celebrations are important ,including Diwali, Hanukah, Christmas. Why do some Christians go to church, what happens there? (Visit and interview Rev Jim) PSHE Through listening to stories, visitors and assemblies develop the understanding and importance of Compassion. Can I develop a poster displaying our class Rules? Can I learn to share and take turns? Can I find out what a friend is? What makes a community?	Being a Sports Person. Through P.E can I develop the skills of resilience, confidence, and perseverance, Can I find out what Being Healthy means? Can I learn new skills and develop control and coordination? Through daily FMC (Funky Fingers) sessions can I develop the fine motor control to be able to write fluently? Can I be a good sportsperson and play team games and be supportive to my peers? How can I look after my body? Find out what happens when you are poorly? Learn to manage my own feelings	Being a Musician/composer What does a composer do? Listen to Classical music and imagine pictures eg Peer Gynt Can I compose a piece of music based on Where the Wild things Are? Can I learn and perform new songs? Can I experiment with sound and make instruments? Being a technologist Find out different ways to research a subject Can I follow instructions to complete a programme? Can I use a programme to publish my writing? Can I understand the need to keep safe on line?

Curriculum Drivers – The Arts, Diversity, Enterprise, Environment.

Events- Wow starter-Treasure Hunt, Author visit, Art exhibition, Theatre Trip

